

2015 Employee Development Day Recap

By Edward Clark

Employee Development Day is one of the many investments that The Franklin County Auto Title Division created to empower our clerks to take ownership of creating a better work environment, maintaining employee morale, and learning new skills.

This year's Employee Development Day 2016, which specifically focused on team building, was held at The Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens, a premier horticultural and educational institution with a rich history dating back over 150 years.

Clerks not only had a day filled with learning, they also were treated to an environment that featured indoor gardens filled with exotic plant life and artwork, including a collection of glass works by artist Dale Chihuly.

Kenneth Skeaton, Director of Auto Title, kicked off the day with opening remarks. He then turned over hosting duties to Alexa Jenkins and Lynda Clark, members of the Auto Title Business Analyst Department. The day's events had insightful presentations regarding title questions that you the Clerk asked to be addressed such as:

- Imports & Exports by Title Management Specialist Aundrea Patterson
- Court Order Process & Procedures by Business Analyst Lynda Clark
- Unclaimed Process & Procedures by Title Management Specialist Tracy Jarvis
- Title Fraud by BMV Investigator Trenita Jackson
- Robbery Training By Sgt. Jones

The day also included presentations that focused solely on the wellbeing of the Clerks in and out of the office such as:

- Team Building Exercises by Human Resource Trainer Theresa Ferguson
- Deferred Compensation by Deferred Comp Representative Brian Panzo
- Health & Wellness by Coordinator of Wellness & Benefits Programs Amanda Blake

The Honorable Maryellen O'Shaughnessy
Franklin County Clerk of Courts

Auto Title Division

Employee Development Day 2016 would not be complete without the "The State of Auto Title Address" by The Honorable Clerk of Courts Maryellen O'Shaughnessy. The Terry Hughes Award given to Victoria Black for being the Deputy Clerk that best exhibits exemplary service on behalf of the Auto Title Division. We also cannot forget Auto North this year's winners of the Auto Title "QUIZ BOWL".
